A Note from the Lay Director

Dear Emmaus Community,

I hope that everyone had a great Fourth of July and was able to celebrate our country's freedom with friends and family. Celebrating our freedom makes me think of the freedom we have in Christ. Galatians 5:1 says "It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery. Christ has offered freedom from things that keep us from Him. So many times I let the things I have done or not done keep me from serving God. One of my favorite songs is by Casting Crowns called Voice of Truth. It tells us that we can listen to the voice that reminds us of the times we've tried and failed or we can choose to listen to the voice of truth that says "Do not be afraid" and "This is for His glory". Which voice do you find yourself listening to the most? Are we letting the burdens Christ has freed us from, interfere with our serving Him with Joy? I want to encourage everyone to come to the July 15th community meeting. As always, you will receive a blessing from the worship service and the Fourth Day speaker. We will pray for the team of Women's Walk #24 which begins on July 22nd. Also, the men from Walk # 17 need to be at the church by 6:15 to go over closing packets. Thank you to Burleigh, Larry and the team of Men's Walk #17 for another "best walk ever". I would like to encourage the community to continue their prayers for John and Kay Graves.

*DeColores,
Todd Christian*

Emmaus & Chrysalis Celebration 2004

September 24 & 25

Happiness is like a butterfly. The more you chase it, the more it will elude you.

But if you turn your attention to God, it comes softly and sits on your shoulder.

How to Pray for People we Don't Know
or We have Never Met

In Colossians 1:9-14, Paul shows us how to pray for those we may not know.

1. Pray to God to fill them with the knowledge of His will.
2. That they will gain spiritual wisdom and understanding.
3. That they may live a life worthy of the Lord and may please Him in every way and honor Him.
4. That they may bear good fruit when doing God's work and kind things for others.
5. That they will grow in the knowledge of God.
6. That they may be filled with God's strength.
7. That God's strength will give them great patience and endurance.
8. That they will stay full of Christ's joy.
9. That they will always be thankful to God Our Father for sending His Son, Jesus, to save us.
