Thought for the Day

DANDELIONS

Author unknown

No matter how carefully I try to pull one out, I never get the whole thing. The root stays deep in the ground, threatening to grow and blossom again. But despite their bad reputation, dandelions are pretty little flowers with their yellow strands all tucked neatly into the center. And truly they are the most beautiful of all flowers when presented clutched in a child's dirty little hand. No one gets yelled at for picking them. Perhaps they grow only to be used and enjoyed by children.

Dandelions are ignored or attacked, never nurtured or cared for, and yet they always bloom profusely. They demand no pampering or special attention to yield their bright blossoms; they pop up in fields, in lawns, and between cracks in the sidewalk, even in the best neighborhoods. Can you imagine trying to grow them in a garden? They'd sneak through the boundaries and pop their sunny yellow faces up in the surrounding lawn. They would never stay put.

Christians should be more like dandelions. Our sunny yellow faces should be a reminder that simple faith has deep roots that are impossible to dislodge. Our vast number would show the world that even though we are not fancy or pampered, we are evident everywhere, even in the best neighborhoods. We should be as easily accessible as a dandelion. Jesus is. We need to get out of our gardens and jump across the boundaries that keep us where people expect to find us. We need to show our sunny yellow faces in all the spots that need a little brightening - the crack in the sidewalk or the lawn of a country club.

And now from our Community Lay Director

Dear Community,

It is hard to believe that summer is almost over and school bells are ringing all over the country. Please be in prayer for our students, faculty and administration as they begin a new year.

We are down to the last two walks of the year and what a wonderful year it has been for the New Horizon Emmaus Community. Mark your calendars for the upcoming Men's Walk #26 led by Bruce Slaughter and Dee Woolam. This walk is set for September 12th thru the 15th. There are still a few places available for pilgrims so get those applications in. Candlelight will be at 8pm on Friday, September 14th and Closing will begin at 4pm on Saturday, September 15th.

The final walk of the year will be Women's Walk #37 led by Sabina Schilling and Gary Hughes. Be sure to sign up for the prayer vigils for these walks at www.3dayol.org.

Our next community gathering will be in Olton at the First United Methodist Church, 312 3rd St. on September 20th. Come out and meet the babe chicks from Men's Walk #26.

At the last board meeting, the board voted to buy new chairs and donate them to the ARK. There will be new chairs in the conference room and the chapel. Thank you to the community for your generous offerings.

De Colores,

Laura Woolam
