Forever

by-Kari Jobe

*The moon and stars they wept; The morning sun was dead;
 The Savior of the world was fallen
 His body on the cross; His blood poured out for us;
 The weight of every curse upon him
 One final breath he gave; As heaven looked away;
 The son of God was laid in darkness
 A battle in the grave; The war on death was waged;
 The power of hell forever broken
 The ground began to shake; The stone was rolled away;
 His perfect love could not be overcome
 Now death where is your sting?
 Our resurrected King has rendered you defeated*

*Forever He is glorified Forever He is lifted high Forever He is risen
 He is alive, He is alive!*

*We sing hallelujah
 The Lamb has overcome
 You have overcome*

*****

This song is wrecking me this Easter season!!

In my imagination, He is interceding on our behalf as He did in the Garden. On that day, He prayed "My Father! If it is possible, let this cup of suffering be taken away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine." I believe He is praying this over us. May this cup of suffering be taken away from them (from us) yet I want your will to be done, not mine. He is just waiting on the word from Father; waiting to come back; waiting for the glorious appearing; waiting to take us to the place that He has prepared for us; waiting to live with us FOREVER!

Do I live like He has overcome the world? Do I live like He is waiting? Waiting on ME! Waiting on me to TELL of our Savior so that none will perish; waiting on me to live my life in a way that points others to my resurrected King! He is waiting on me and I don't want to delay His return by one single minute because of my action OR my inaction. I am ready for FOREVER!

For each and every one of you, I pray for an Easter that is filled with Him! I pray that He is glorified and lifted high. HE IS RISEN! HE IS ALIVE! We sing hallelujah because the Lamb has overcome!

A Note from Our Community Spiritual Director

Dear Community,

As I thought about Spring, I thought about new life and how everything begins to look so green and we have just celebrated the resurrection of our Lord and Savior. But I am also reminded that there are three other distinct seasons and sometimes in West Texas they all come in the same day. Many times that is the way it is in our lives. We have many seasons sometimes all in the same day. In Ecclesiastes 3 we are reminded there is a time for everything and a season for every activity under heaven.

A time to be born and a time to die,
A time to plant and a time to uproot,
A time to tear down and a time to build,
A time to weep and a time to laugh,
A time to mourn and a time to dance,
A time to be silent and a time to speak.....

He has made everything beautiful in its time.
As I stood beside the grave of a young lady last week I talked about the headstone how there will be the date of birth and the date of death on that headstone. We do not get to choose the exact time we are born or the time we die but we do get to choose how we live that dash. That is our time on earth that God has given each of us; our seasons of life. How are we living our dash? Are we living our dash for Jesus Christ? Are we loving and serving others? Are we living as if we have the Living Savior living in us? Live your Dash to fullest loving and serving Jesus Christ.

Janet Edwards

To All Who Love Him

O God of the Universe,
you shed your glory, your majesty,
your omnipotence
to become human, as Jesus Christ-- to get close to us, to connect with us, to be our role model and guide for living.

O God of the Universe,
you became the human Jesus Christ,
to know us, to feel all we feel,
to show us how much you love us by taking within yourself all our sins.

O God of the Universe,
you felt not just one person's pain
but the pain of all of us, to wash us clean and bond with us,
your creation, your children.

O God of the Universe,
you proved your transcendent holy power
by rising from the dead, a sign that all of us who believe in You will also rise to be with You eternally.

The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the "Happy" in "Happy Easter."
Happy Easter to all those who love Him.

By Poet- Joanna Fuchs

May the "Happy".... ( the, JOY) of this, the Anniversary of our Glorious God of the Universe give you and your family a renewed strength as you continue to serve our Risen King.

Blessings,
The New Horizon Emmaus Board
