A NOTE FROM THE COMMUNITY LAY DIRECTOR

Greetings New Horizon Community ~

What an exciting month this is for us. Prayer has been covering Women's Walk #72 for months, and now we get to love on, continue to pray for and encourage these women as they experience His amazing love April 4-7. I know you will support them with your prayers and your presence.

Mindy chose the verse from Isaiah 62:3 which says, "You will be a crown of splendor in the Lord's hands, a royal diadem in the hand of your God". When crowns were given to the high priest it indicated that they were set apart for a particular task or calling. It indicated the presence of honor.

We are told in the Bible that there will be at least five different crowns that God will give some of us who have accepted His gift of salvation. I asked myself – how am I wearing my crown? My thought went back to high school when girls were crowned homecoming queen or when a guy and girl were selected to be Mr. and Miss BCHS. And to the one crowned Miss USA. These crowns were special, and they wore them knowing they had significant meaning.

But how more special are the crowns that God gives us. The incorruptible crown; 1 Corinthians 9:24 – 25, given to believers who faithfully run the race. The crown of rejoicing; 1 Thess. 2:19-20 and Daniel 12:3, given to those who faithfully are witnesses to the saving grace of God and lead souls to Christ. The crown of life; James 1:1, given to those believers who endure trials, tribulations, and suffering. The crown of righteousness; 2 Tim 4:8, given to those who love the appearing of Christ, who anxiously wait and look forward to His return. The crown of glory; 1 Peter 5:1-4, given to those ministers who faithfully feed the flock of God.

We at New Horizon Emmaus are set apart. Each of us have a specific calling. As I pondered a teaching that I read on crowns, I had to ask myself a question. That is, "How am I wearing my crown". My challenge to myself became to visually see Him placing a crown on my head each day and to remember "Who" I represent as I wear His crown.

Friends, you are a crown of splendor in the Lord's Hands.
DeColores ~Jill Lindsey

A NOTE FROM THE COMMUNITY SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

Hi Community!

Mindy, Royce, and the rest of the team have been working hard to finalize all details, put the finishing touches on Talks, make agape gifts, pray for each pilgrim, and seek the Lord for the upcoming Women's Walk, April 11-14. It is right around the corner!

He is going to do immeasurably more than we could ask for or imagine. This is who our God is! Right now, the Walk is full but if the Lord puts someone on your heart to sponsor go ahead and send in their registration. Things happen at the last minute and it could be their time. If not, they can be first in line for July's Women's Walk. Come and be a blessing to the entire team and pilgrim group by getting involved in the Walk weekend events.

How is your Walk with Christ? Are you on a mountain top? Are you in a valley? If you need a brother or sister to talk to or to pray for you or to help you, reach out and let someone know. This is what the Body of Christ is for. Don't be ashamed or proud. Ask and you shall receive. (Matthew 7:7) Are you looking for a way to give back? Seek out the orphan or the widow, the broken and the bruised, love them, encourage them, be Christ's hands and feet to them. Love to each of you! Be blessed!
