A NOTE FROM THE COMMUNITY LAY DIRECTOR

Greetings Community,

The Lord has really been hitting me with the word "expecting" recently. What are we expecting? The question I have been asking myself lately is, am I expecting enough from the Father and, secondly, will I see what He does when He moves or will I miss it because it didn't look like what I expected.

I know He shows up for every Walk, but the Bible says, "He never leaves us, He never forsakes us" so we shouldn't have to be around a Walk or even the community to see God doing His miracles. We should be His vessels to bring His miracles to those around us.

Open the eyes of our hearts, Lord, to see every move you make. Open our ears to hear You speaking. Holy Spirit help each of us to be obedient to follow Your commands and the most important of these is to love.

I am so proud to be a part of this Community. Let's get the year rolling by coming out to pray and support Men's Walk #52 and all the events surrounding it. By being a vessel for these men, we can rekindle the flame that the Father's love ignited in us on our Walk.

~De Colores, James Kelley

A NOTE FROM THE COMMUNITY SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

Hello Community,

One of the most exciting things about February for the New Horizons Emmaus Community is that we have a Men's Walk!!! The team is prepared and ready and the pilgrims are on their way to an encounter with The Savior. This encounter, as we have seen over and over now, is breaking chains of bondage to sin, restoring relationships, empowering commissions of faith, reigniting fire for The Lord, and opening eyes to the "more" of The Kingdom of heaven. Let us join the weekend in prayer, in gifts of agape, and by coming to the send-off and closing worship.

May God bless the Men's Walk and may God bless each of you!

~De Colores, Jackie Qualls
